

Midway Fort (pp 543-4)

" Tithing office (p 551) 1873-

" Amusement Hall (p 564)

Old German Hall (p 549)

Immigrant House

Milk House (Huber)

Reo Theatre

Bsp David Van Wagoner Store

Van Wagoner Bros Gen'l Store

Reo Theatre Store

1st Meeting House (p. 550) (built of native potrock)

Original Midway First Ward Chapel (p 536)

New " " " Chapel (remodeled p 558)

original 2nd Ward Chapel

New " " " (p 565)

Bsp John Watkins's 1st Brick home (p 574-5)

Mrs O'Neil's Restaurant. (Frank Slaughter home (p 586))

Midway Underground Lake.

Memorial Hill or Jesse's Mound.

Mound City Cemetery

William Walter Wilson cemetery (1825-1880)

New Midway Cemetery.

Ref ABUM pp 539-819

(over)

6 Midway Postoffices

1. Bishop David VanWagoner Co-operative, potrock, whitewashed, two-storied store, <sup>located</sup> SW corner of the present Town Square in Midway (1893-1897)
2. William and Mary Elizabeth Busby small frame store located at North Center Street (1897-1918)
3. Old wooden ~~the~~ Midway School on SE corner of present Town Square facing south.
4. Old potrock, one-storied, school building located on SE corner of present Town Square facing store.
5. Later a second story was added to <sup>the east portion of</sup> this building
6. Old <sup>wooden, one-room, one story</sup> German Hall located at 138 West 100 N in Midway <sup>facing south.</sup> This became the north portion of Dean Zenger home-Town Hall. The
7. New potrock Post office building <sup>is the East most portion of the building</sup> on SE corner of the present Midway town Square facing south.
8. Newest across road - so.